Supplemental Figure 1. Stack energy as function of slowness and backazimuth for a time window encompassing both P and the first surface multiple PP. The time window was taken about 260 s after the P wave first arrival at the reference station MOX where the PP phase is already well developed. The direct P wave is clearly resolved from PP.